Graybach Among Fastest-Growing Cincinnati Companies

Cincinnati, OH, June 7, 2012 – Graybach, LLC, a local general contracting and construction management company, once again celebrated their phenomenal growth streak by accepting their Cincinnati Business Courier Fast 55 nomination.

The annual Cincinnati Business Courier’s Fast 55 Award Luncheon was held in Downtown Cincinnati last Friday, where Graybach’s management team was nominated as one of the fastest-growing private firms in Cincinnati. “Since last year’s nomination, the pressure to keep our momentum going has intensified. As we grow, our projects become more and more exciting and every person on our team has been an integral part of our success,” said owner Pete Subach.

After touting impressive 484% growth in last year’s standings, Graybach posted still aggressive 313% growth this year. They officially finished as the 9th fastest-growing business of all nominees, and 4th fastest growing business in their respective category.

Graybach attributes much of their success to forging strategic partnerships with key players in Cincinnati development. Upcoming projects include working with 3CDC, a non-profit at the forefront of Downtown Cincinnati revitalization; the renovation of two buildings on Race Street to create nine condominiums; and constructing a new district office for the Sycamore School district.

Graybach, LLC provides general contracting and construction management services to the public and private markets in Cincinnati and surrounding regions. As the area’s fastest-growing construction company, Graybach was founded to provide timely completion, honest pricing, and dedicated project communication to large and small clients alike.
