Cincinnati, OH, June 13, 2011 – Graybach, LLC, a local general contracting and construction management company, celebrates consistent growth streak by accepting their Cincinnati Business Courier Fast 55 award and launching a brand new website at Graybach.com.

Graybach's management team attended the Cincinnati Business Courier's Fast 55 Award Luncheon, where they were nominated as one of the fastest-growing private firms in Cincinnati. "We are thrilled to be a part of this elite group of thriving Cincinnati businesses. Every employee at Graybach, from the management at our Over-the-Rhine headquarters to our carpenters in the field, has played a key role in our continued success," said owner Pete Subach. In just 2.5 years, Graybach achieved 484% growth despite slowly recovering economic conditions, and they plan to keep growing. They officially finished as the 3rd fastest-growing business of all nominees, and 2nd fastest growing business in their respective category.

To mark the occasion, today they announced a completely re-launched website, Graybach.com, as the first step in their marketing plans for the rest of 2011. By partnering with a Cincinnati marketer, Cheryl Walters of CheronaWorks.com, they developed a fresh look for their new website where you can learn about the company, its employees, services they provide and view a portfolio of their diverse local projects.

They have many new commercial partnerships in the works, and they're currently driving their residential business by building environmentally-friendly LEED homes. In addition to new business development, Graybach continues to be active proponent of the education and workplace development of Cincinnati youth through their partnership with CAA-Cincinnati and their Youth Build "Blueprint for Success" Program. The company continues to build their well-rounded portfolio of new, modern structures, existing site expansions, and thoughtful historic renovations.
